FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:
18 U.S.C. §§ 1349 and 1347: Conspiracy to Commit Health Care Fraud as charged in Counts 1 of the First Superseding Indictment; 18 U.S.C. §§ 1956(h) and (a)(1)(B)(i): Conspiracy to Commit Money Laundering as charged in Counts 13 of the First Superseding Indictment.

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $11,843,554 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A, to victims as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the probation office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims.

The Court finds from a consideration of the record that the defendant's economic circumstances allow for restitution payments pursuant to the following schedule: A partial payment of at least $500,000 shall be paid within 180 days of sentencing. The balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, monthly payments of at least 10% of defendant's gross monthly income but not less than $100, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision.

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with co-participants Aleksandr Suris (Case No. CR 17000420-SJO) and Dimitry Gotlinsky (Case No. CR 16-00459-SJO) for payment of restitution. The victim's recovery is limited to the amount of its loss and the defendant's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victim receives full restitution.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 18-10.

Pursuant to Guideline §5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Maxim Sverdlov, is hereby committed on Counts 1 and 13 of the First Superseding Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 144 months. This term consists of 120 months on Count 1 of the First Superseding Indictment and 24 months on Count 13 of the First Superseding Indictment, all to be served consecutively for a total of 144 months.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years. This term consists of three years on each of Counts 1 and 13 of the First Superseding Indictment, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office and General Order 18-10, including the conditions of probation and supervised release set forth in Section III of General Order 18-10.
2. The defendant shall not commit any violation of local, state, or federal law or ordinance.
3. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
4. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
5. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any other financial gains to the Court-ordered financial obligation.
6. The defendant shall not be employed in any position that requires licensing and/or certification by any local, state, or federal agency without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

The Court advises the defendant of his right to appeal.

The Court Orders the bond exonerated upon surrender.

In the interest of justice the Court grants the government's motion to dismiss the underlying indictment.

The Court Orders the defendant remanded to the custody of the U.S. Marshal forthwith. Clerk issues remand order # D10905 to the U.S. Marshal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
